REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

EASTERN DISTRICT

EDGAR L. WHITE, Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In submitting this, my second annual report, I have in mind the request of the secretary and some other members of the conference that we make our messages as brief as possible.

our messages as brief as possible.

Just as I was rejoicing in the fact that death had not entered any of our parsonage homes, word came to me while on the road of the tragic death of Brother J. A. Smith, who labored so faithfully and so acceptably at Mountain Home this past year. Our sympathy goes out to the good wife and to the splendid boys, both products of a real Christian home and of Montana Wesleyan, who, as they have always done, will continue to bear aloft the banner of Jesus Christ as the most fitting tribute to the memory of the husband and father who has gone on before. We also want Brother Weaver, who was called upon to lay away his father, and others who have lost dear and near ones to know that our best wishes and most earnest prayers are with them in their hour of bereavement.

EVANGELISM

Early in the year, Dr. Elmer E. Loose and his good wife, of Waukesha, Wisconsin, were secured to hold a series of evangelistic campaigns on the district. His work was most helpful and successful. At Idaho Falls, the entire constituency was richly benefited and inspired, while a goodly number joined the church. At Shelley, 85 adult members were received, and this year Shelley will ask for a full-time resident pastor. At Twin Falls,

Dr. Loose also conducted a series of meetings which had much to do with the splendid report of 142 members received since last conference time. Burley held a series of meetings and Pastor Kendall was assisted by Dr. Gillilan and the district superintendent. At Rupert, the laymen cooperated, much personal work was done and Pastor Heath reports 29 new members as one of the evidences of the fruitfulness of this pastoral and house-tohouse work.

I am glad to report that nearly all the pastors are planning well for evangelism this coming year.

Brethren, we must do it. The people are hungrier for the Gospel than ever before. They are waiting for a personal invitation from you and from me to accept Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. If we fail to bear that message to them from the pulpit, in the home, at the plough, on the street, we will not only fail in the work to which we are called but, as Paul puts it, we ourselves will be in danger of losing our own salvation.

DEBTS

During the past year Gooding led in the amount of church debts raised and has over $9,000 to its credit. Wendell raised $250 for improvements; Mackay, $450 for the same good reason. Idaho Falls, $2,200 on debt and $450 more on parsonage improvements, with plans to provide $3,000 more before January 1. Shelley renovated the church, put in $100 on electric lights and $250 on old debts. Ashton renovated or renewed the building, pews, wood work and carpet of the church, and did a good job on the parsonage besides. At Twin Falls, the ladies have looked after the comfort of their pastor, while the men folks have labored just as faithfully with their church debt and have a total of $3,635 to their credit. At Buhl, thanks to Brother Helman, plans are already on foot for the completion of the to Brother Helman, plans are already on foot for the completion of the church which, even in its present condition, is doing such good work. Salmon renovated its property at a cost of $450, which has been paid. Burley raised $945 which was applied on the old debt.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

My heart was made glad and almost sad when I saw the splendid publicity given by the Pacific Christian Advocate to the Sunday school workers and the Sunday school rallies that have recently been held in Oregon and in Washington. I was glad because our neighbors are so progressive in this respect and sad because we need the right man to work the Sunday school idea right here in the Inter Mountain conference. The eastern district would welcome such a worker and if a rally could be held at Twin Falls or Pocatello or any other two good points, I know it would put life and new purpose into the Sunday schools that need better equipment and better prepared teachers so much.

EPWORTH LEAGUES

We were more than gratified at the splendid success of our Wood River Epworth League institute. Besides the splendid work of Dean Kendall, Manager Fleming and the regular faculty, Bishop Smith, Brother Ewing, Brothers Heath, Weaver and a host of others put on the finishing touches that made this meeting most valuable to the young men and women of Methodism. The enrollment far exceeded our expectations and the results include students for Gooding College, workers for home field, workers for foreign fields and renewed enthusiasm and consecration for every chapter and church represented. We feel that this instructive part of our church is entitled to the whole-hearted support of every pastor. It was surely a source of satisfaction to the district superintendent to note that nearly every pastor was there, and we are counting on a full hundred per cent support for the coming year.

GOODING COLLEGE

Gooding College is fast becoming the kind of a school we want it to Last year's increase was something like thirty per cent and present indications point to a similar growth for this year.

With no special agent in the field or outside campaigners sent for, this forward movement, including improvements amounting to $10,000, has been made. The president says the credit belongs to the pastors of the Inter-Mountain conference, who have been so faithful in their support, so loyal in telling the story to their young people, and so persistent in upholding the standards without which Christian education is impossible. Brethren, we need Gooding College. Seventeen young men and women from parsonage homes have already enrolled this year, and the student body as a whole stands for the things in which we believe.

Gooding College also needs us. It needs us right now more than ever before. New students require furniture, desks and other equipment. The men's dormitory must be completed. The president says he can do it this year if every church reports its emergency collection in full both this and next conference time. We can do it, if we once catch the vision that we cannot afford to not do it.

cannot afford to not do it.

My suggestion is that each charge have an educational committee whose business will be to see that the Gooding College apportionment is collected, paid and reported each and every quarter of the year.

WORLD SERVICE

Last year, in our report, we promised to do our best by the World Service program and to put forth an honest effort to increase our givings twenty-five per cent. During the first part of the year it seemed as if we were going to meet our goal, but for some reason, I know not what, during the past six weeks a slump has occurred. We are still hoping that we will not be ashamed of the record of our district. Brethren, we must continue to put our hearts and souls into the ideals of the World Service program. If it had not been for the whole-hearted support of the Board of Home Missions, we would have been compelled to close several of our churches this year. Without the co-operation of the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Education, Gooding College could not have weathered the financial storm of the past three years. The leaders of Methodism understand our situation. They know our needs. They have given us as much as they could under the circumstances. They know that nothing short of an earnest, hard-working, well-prepared, consecrated, amply equipped and well supported leadership will bring this mountain country to Jesus Christ. They are on our side. If we do our part they will do theirs so again I hope that you will take for your slogan, "A twenty-five per cent increase and honest effort by every man to do his full share in the great program for the salvation of the world."

PROBLEMS

Castleford—As some of you already know, the home missions council gave another denomination equal rights on this charge which has been served by Methodism for so many years. The action was uncalled for, as the territory will not warrant support enough for two pastors. If an assistant pastor can be obtained at Buhl, I believe our interests can still be cared for.

Mackay-Mackay has agreed to furnish $1,200 and house if a suitable young man can be obtained to put on a community program. The leading citizens are back of this movement and will co-operate in every possible way to bring success.

Shoshone-Shoshone insists upon a full time man and wishes to pay him a salary of $700. No missionary funds are available, so it is hard to see how the right man can be obtained for that amount of money. The situation reminds me of the woman who was buying a shirt for her husband.

She forgot the size of the collar so asked the salesman. His reply was that $13\frac{1}{2}$ is the size usually worn by men who let their wives buy their shirts.

Dietrich would also like a full time man but has consented to a student appointment until such time as their finances are in better shape.

Glenns Ferry—Glenns Ferry and Mountain Home should be combined. Railroad and stage connections are the very best and the interests of Methodism can be well cared for in both places by this plan.

American Falls—No town in the state will be busier than American Falls this coming year. People are coming and goin, moving and settling all at the same time. Many of these people have come from good churches. A warm handshake and a word of greeting as they get off the train or attempt to establish themselves in their new buildings will make an increase in membership that churches under more stable conditions will have a hard time to equal.

Albion—I have just received a letter from Albion, the seat of the State Normal School, urging me to secure them a good full-time pastor. The church and the parsonage have been renovated. Residence teachers and students, of whom there are over three hundred in the course of the year, are anxious to meet the man who is willing to come to this point and build up a charge that will take care of them in an adequate way. No missionary money is in sight but I am hoping that Dr. Forsyth will be able to use his influence in securing an appropriation that will help us start the teachers who start our children, right.

As I have studied over these problems sometimes the outlook has seemed discouraging. Other fields under similar circumstances have received more adequate support, but we have done the best we could with what we have had. I have appreciated the loyalty and hospitality of the brethren from Salmon to Mountain Home and from Albion to Ketchum. As we open a new year, I again promise that I will do my best to co-operate and back up each and every individual who is doing his share for the upbuilding of Methodism and of humanity in the Eastern district of the Inter Mountain conference. Again, I thank our Bishop H. Lester Smith, Secretary Charles L. Bovard, Secretary W. S. Bovard, Dr. David D. Forsyth and all you brethren for your hearty support and encouragement.

WESTERN DISTRICT

HARRY S. HAMILTON, Superintendent.

Bishop and members of the conference, I here present my first annual report which is the first annual report of the Western District of the Inter Mountain conference. As I understand it a report should not only record achievements but at the same time make observations along the way. This year has been one of exploration and inspiration. The district comprises six counties in Oregon and eight counties in Idaho making a territory of 41,387 square miles which is equal to three of the Iowa conferences or a territory a little larger than the state of Ohio which has only 41,060 sq. miles. It is mainly frontier and rural with considerable timber land. There are at present within the bounds of the district fifteen lumber mills and the same number of logging camps employing at normal times about thirty-two hundred men. The only special work being done is by our church at Barber. In this territory we have thirty-six charges with forty-eight preaching places together with three churches in which services are not held. There may be more for we have tried to locate the churches and parsonages which were either lost, strayed or stolen according to the statistical report of a year ago.

parsonages which were either lost, strayed of solds determined tical report of a year ago.

When we took up the work a year ago all the places were manned except two which were left to be supplied. During the year certain changes have taken place. J. W. James was taken from Barber and placed in charge of Eagle and Middleton. J. H. Ross taking up work with the finance commission of the Board of Education; J. H. McDonald of the North Dakota conference was secured and placed in charge of the churches at Wilder and Homedale. George Ellis of the Minnesota conference was secured for Haines. K. L. Haga of the Puget Sound conference was placed in charge of Huntington upon the leaving of P. N. Manning who was transferred to the Kansas Conference. Miss Josie Blokland has taken care of North Powder since the middle of June when I, J. McFarland left us for "greener pastures" in the Nazarene church. No more loyal set of men for the most part ever went out to conquer in the fight for truth than the men of the Western District. The measure of the faithfulness and efficiency of the service rendered the church and the Kingdom of God will be partially revealed by the reports of the respective pastors for only the Great Shepherd of our souls knows it all. Also during the year I have met a host of stalwart laymen who have lifted the load on every interest of the Kingdom.

Improvements: Owing to the failure of last year's crops there has been very little in the way of buildings and improvements. No new churches very little in the way of buildings and improvements. No new churches have been built but several have been repainted and decorated within and without. The people of Kuna in spite of the shortage of water which left many of the people stranded; have heroically faced the opportunity of doing the work of the Master and under the leadership of Pastor Luscombe have built on faith a much needed addition to their church property in order to take care of the growing Sunday School and Young Peoples' work.

With the aid of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension we have secured the property of the Protestant Episcopal church at New Meadows and have about completed the purchase of the Congregational church at Meadows and these two points will ultimately become a splendid circuit circuit.

Fire destroyed the roof and ceiling of the church at Emmett but they had insurance to cover the loss and the repairs are nearing completion. During the year the church edifice here at Cascade has been completed and this is the outstanding church on the District which was begun during the period of the Centenary. It is a monument to the untiring efforts of the pastor Rev. Joseph Pope.

District Gatherings: An excellent district conference was held the fore-part of February at Baker. Oregon which was well attended by both preschore.

District Gatherings: An excellent district conference was held the forepart of February at Baker, Oregon which was well attended by both preachers and laymen considering that this was the first on the district. We greatly appreciated the presence and great addresses of Bishop H. Lester Smith and Dr. Stauffacher of East Africa.

During the year five indoor Epworth League Institutes were held under the leadership of Hall K. Wallis and these resulted in a number of decisions for Christ as well as for life service. The interest shown during these meetings resulted in a large enthusiastic summer Epworth League Institute at Wallowa Lake where the District has a fine Camp grounds of one hundred and ten acres of land. This Institute is becoming more popular every year. The Boy Scouts of the District held their first encampment at the Camp grounds during the summer under the leadership of K. L. Haga and I. R. Aldrich. This should become a popular place for the Boy Scout gatherings of the District. erings of the District.

Work in General: There are a few Junior Leagues on the District

Work in General: There are a few Junior Leagues on the District doing a fine piece of work with the children and a splendid junior church at Payette. But in many places they are suffering for lack of consecrated leaders yet there is no work that will so fully pay for the effort expended. Our church papers are not as plentiful as they should be, for in many places the pastor is the only one taking an Advocate or an Epworth Herald. "My people perish for lack of knowledge" cried the prophet and the failure to secure more funds than we have for local support and World Service is not due to the mistakes of the Centenary or the lack of an Area Secretary (as some claim) but to lack of information. For when the information about the doings of the Methodist church comes to the people through the Eastern Methodist and the Pentecostal Herald there is going to be a falling off in ministerial support and benevolences. People grow thin on criticisms but they like it for it relieves the pocket book of responsibility. We need a revival of the reading of the church papers.

The Ladies' Aid Societies under their various names are organized in practically all the churches. They aid the social life of the church and in many places make possible the larger achievements of the church. They have been doing very helpful work this year and have really saved some churches from extinction. When they can give their largest attention to social service they will become a still larger factor in the kingdom of God. Too often they "bake and stew" their way into heaven while the men hope to go in on "flowery beds of ease."

The Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies are not very numerous but those we have are active and will report a good year's work.

erous but those we have are active and will report a good year's work.

Several revivals have been held on the district with some marked results. There is need of earnest and faithful personal evangelism on every charge on the part of pastor and people. We are called brethren to be evangelists. Therefore:

> "Be strong! We are not here to play, to dream, to drift, We have hard work to do, and loads to lift Shun not the struggle, face it, 'tis God's gift."

EVANGELIZE

Gooding College should have the loyal support of pastor and people throughout the District. It has received special attention at the District gatherings and when the returns are all in will show an increase in its support.

trict gatherings and when the returns are all in will show an increase in its support.

Only in a few instances has there been any serious illness in the parsonage homes and only one has been bereaved by death. In April the son of Brother and Sister Keith passed away at his home in Beaumont, California leaving besides his parents a wife and three small children. Rev. Keith is now the pastor of the church at that place.

Mrs. Henry Martin the wife of our pastor at Flora suffered a stroke of paralysis on the twenty-sixth of December and is still in a serious condition with very little hope of recovery.

Finances: World service and ministerial support have both suffered this year from the financial conditions due to the shortage of water of last year and the low price of farm products and the high cost of production of the two preceeding years. While the crops and for the most part prices are both good this year yet it will only in a small way relieve the situation, for the farmer is still in bad shape financially with water rates in many places unpaid for three years. Water rates on the greater part of the District is seven dollars an acre. Eighty-five percent of the farms on this district are mortgaged and in many cases for more than the farms can be sold for today. Fifty percent of these mortgages can never be paid. Some farmers have not only the crops of this year mortgaged but next year's crop as well. The only salvation for the farmer, the preacher and the church is the cow. Cream checks make a steady source of income. The farmer must soon learn that the one crop idea does not pay in the long run. The average salary of the preachers on this district including missionary money if all is paid in full will be $1120.02. Not only is the support of the preachers insufficient but many of the churches are in many ways inefficient to do the work of religious education. Both these conditions do not attract efficient leadership nor advance the Kingdom of God. Self help as well as world vision is needed throughout the D District.

Work has been hindered in several places by the Federated church "bee" resulting from the cosmopolitan make-up of the churches with the lack of real substantial Methodists in many of the weaker churches. In most cases it would have been a union of the lion and the lamb resulting in no substantial good for the Kingdom of God.

The provisions of the Discipline paragraph 190, section 10 have been carried out to the best of my ability.

Personally, like many of my predecessors I have preached a few sermons many times. Have taught Sunday School classes, led prayer meetings, assisted in special services, taught in five indoor Epworth League Institutes and the summer Institutes at Wallowa Lake and Wood River. We have enjoyed the fellowship of the young people at these gatherings. They have given the District Superintendent the inspiration to "Carry On."

In closing we are conscious of some mistakes and imperfections in our work, but we have tried to cast a shadow for our Christ and have endeavored to work for Him.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas the forty-second session of the Inter Mountain Conference has

We have been highly honored in the visit of representatives from our church boards, whose addresses have informed and inspired us. We extend our hearty thanks to Dr. D. D. Forsythe, Dr. G. C. Douglas, Dr. J. S. Burnett, Dr. E. E. Tuck and R. V. Johnson. We appreciate the courtesies of the Book Concern and their representatives. We are especially grateful to Dr. H. H. Meyer for his series of inspirational addresses on religious education. religious education.

We have enjoyed the presence and addresses of Edward Laird Mills, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and Miss Grace Bilcox, national field worker of the W. H. M. S.

We wish also to express our thanks to the local press and business men of Cascade for their uniform courtesy shown through the entire conference.

Bishop Locke, we feel that words cannot express our feelings of esteem and gratitude which your presence and words have inspired in us. By your sweet spirit of Christian fellowship and brotherliness you have greatly heartened us in our work and it is needless to say that we will most heartly welcome you as our presiding Bishop at any future time. We pray God's richest blessing upon you as you go from us to minister in other fields.

B. F. MEREDITH, G. W. BARNES.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

We recognize the Sunday School as the most important educational agency of the church, for the religious instruction of childhood.

We urge upon all of our pastors and people the need of a careful survey of each community with a definite purpose to secure the regular attendance upon our Sunday School of every child belonging to our constituency.

We very highly appreciate the series of addresses given at this session of our conference by Dr. H. H. Meyer, and believe he is doing a fine piece of work as editor of our Sunday School publications.

We recommend that wherever practicable our preachers urge the use of the graded series of lessons and helps published by our church.

G. W. BARNES, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Recognizing that the work of the Epworth League is the potent factor in our church in combating the evils which confront our young people, too much emphasis cannot be laid upon the program of the Epworth League.

We heartily commend the work of the two summer Institutes, Wallowa Lake and Wood River. There were 617 in attendance, 369 of which were registered for class work. Fifteen completed the four year course and received their diplomas.

We also commend the Indoor Institutes, of which there were five, with 200 registration, 159 certificates and 36 conversions.

Let us continue in the Master's work.

O. L. KENDALL, HALL K. WALLIS, J. J. FLEMING.

THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

As the Methodist Episcopal church is ever at the forefront with reference to every principal and question that comprehends the uplift and salvation of mankind everywhere her utterances against war regarding it as a crime against society and a sin before Almighty God are but the logical outcome of such thought and action.

Therefore the church declares itself as opposed to any movement by any department of our government that even suggests the preparation for aggressive war and hails with joy, as in harmony with the utterances of the Prince of Peace any movement inaugurated and conducted by the leaders of government that tends toward mutual and unselfish co-operation in the settlement of international differences through the func-tioning of the League of Nations, a World Court or any other means that in the wisdom of highest civilization may be suggested and adopted.

There is great cause for gratitude and thankfulness that the Methodist Episcopal church has not been drawn into controversy as to scriptural interpretation or scientific conclusion as to the purpose work and rule of our Heavenly Father concerning his creative work and growing humanity, or as to some of the outstanding facts relating to the life, teaching and works of Jesus Christ our accepted Saviour of mankind; but that in the light of gracious truth, constraining experience and the needs of humanity sees fit to press forward to the high mark of her calling concerning the problems and successes of the world's redemption.

We rejoice that while in the realm of the clean heart the church would wage her conquests with the clean hand adopting such methods as may have been proven in the universal church to have been feasible and also resultful in the advancement of the interests of the Kingdom of God, suggesting great caution as to the surrendering of our convictions as founded upon the principles and doctrines of our church as well as the sacrifices made by those before us.

Led by the spirit and commands of an ever-living and victorious Christ, our church would bless all mankind regardless of condition that nation or race may impose proposing not to be misled by changing terms invented during the processes of government or Christian civilization.

The church confidently declares through faith hope and charity that God is still upon his throne, that the powers of his kingdom are as effective as ever and still manifest and that righteousness and judgment will prevail throughout the earth and the Christ will see satisfaction in the glorious salvation of men.

> G. H. FEESE, CHARLES E. TATE, N. E. HERSHEY.

WORLD SERVICE

Your World Service Council Committee pledges its heartiest co-operation in the promotion of the program of the World Service Commission. We deeply regret the inadequacy of the World Service offerings and urge the Ministers of the Conference to make strenuous efforts to meet in full their World Service askings, forwarding the same at frequent intervals to the World Service Transport to the World Service Treasurer.

We further recommend to the Conference that, as a Conference, we do not concur in the action of the Helena Area Council in the employment of an Area Secretary, because, however the fund is raised, the support of the Secretary will eventually come from the World Service moneys and we do not believe that such a Secretary will increase such moneys to the amount of the expense of his office.

We wish to express our appreciation of the Pacific Advocate and, as we feel that the Messenger circulated in our Conference can not but interfere with the circulation of the Advocate, we recommend that the Messenger be not circulated except by individual subscription nor the assessment be made as suggested by the Area Council. We take this action with highest esteem for our resident Bishop and assure him of our confidence in his leadership.

C. E. HELMAN, H. J. ROAN, J. E. BAKER, V. E. HALL.

EDUCATION

We, the committee on education, desire to commend the work of President C. W. Tenney of Gooding College. We are greatly gratified at the progress the school is making and desire to express this appreciation in a way that will be most helpful.

First, by recommending Gooding College to parents and to the young men and young women of our respective charges.

Second, by again pledging our conference and our churches to the annual apportionment of one dollar per member for the support of Gooding College this coming year, urging upon our pastors an early presentation of this claim and the importance of forwarding the amounts collected as soon as possible, in order that the good work now started can go

Third, in view of the fact that our needs are urgent and that time is Third, in view of the fact that our needs are urgent and that time is necessary to organize any campaign with hope of success, we recommend that the Institutional Financing of the Methodist Board of Education be invited now to cooperate with us and with the trustees of Gooding College in a forward movement for not less than a quarter of a million dollars not later than October 1, 1926 and pledge our hearty support and work in every way possible, the proceeds therefrom to be used for completing and furnishing the buildings on which construction has already been started, to pay off present indebtedness and to provide endowment for the future support of our school.

We appeared the election of Brothers F. W. Hastings, C. F. Borden.

We announce the election of Brothers F. W. Hastings, C. F. Borden, and Anson Thompson to the class of 1928 by the Board of Trustees and desire to place in nomination, subject to the approval of this Conference, to succeed themselves as members of the Board of Trustees and to be placed in the class of 1928 Brothers J. A. Glendinning, J. D. Gillilan and

W. M. Ewing.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. BAKER, C. O. HEATH.

BIBLE

The Bible—the Word of God—the Christian's Book of Faith! this not be the time that the people called Methodists in this inter mountain region shall sound a clarion call to a systematic, careful and worshipful study of the Book of God.

We view with deep concern the large number of our youth who are not familiar with the Bible, and our appeal is for the larger use of the bound Book in our Sunday School classes, our public services and at our firesides.

We commend the legislature of Idaho in making the reading of the Bible in the public schools a part of the daily program; and shall look forward to the time when it shall be used also as a text book in our public educational system.

C. M. KNIGHT.

TEMPERANCE

Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal Church has had an important part in bringing about the enactment of the XVIIIth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and strongly assisted in keeping the Volstead Act intact; and

Whereas, There is an organized effort looking toward the repeal of said

XVIIIth Amendment and a modfication of the Volstead Act; and

Whereas, The report of the Federal Council of Churches reveals there is much to be done in order to make complete prohibition effective; there-

Be it kesolved, That we renew our allegiance to the cause of Temperance and Prohibition, cooperating with the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals and the Anti-Saloon League.

That we commend the Federal State officers who have made an honest attempt to enforce the laws; and that we urge the necessity of exacting a pledge from each candidate for office that he will faithfully oppose any effort looking toward the repeal of or the modification of the present prohibition laws; and use his utmost activity in the enforcement of the same, and that we will welcome any legislation making the present statutes more effective. tutes more effective.

The secretary of this conference is hereby directed to send a copy of these resolutions to the Anti-Saloon League, and to the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, to Col. Elias Marsters of Helena and Gov. C. C. Moore of Idaho and Gov. W. M. Pierce of Oregon.

J. D. GILLILAN,

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE

We have examined the books of the Conference Treasurer, the Treasurer of the Conference Stewards, and the Treasurer of the White Cross and of both District Superintendents and find them correct.

HALL K. WALLIS, S. ALLISON, EDWIN DEACON

FINANCE

Your committee recommends that the support of the District Superintendent for the ensuing conference year be estimated on the same basis as that of last year, i. e. 9% of the cash salary, not including missionary money, received by the pastors.

HENRY W. PARKER, VERNON E. HALL, B. F. MEREDITH.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

We are continually edified and rebuked by the exalted life and the unselfish acts of our constituent co-workers in the foreign fields of our Church. Their bravery under natural hardships has been accentuated by the added embarrassments occasioned by the apparent lethargy of many in the homeland Church. Accepting the continual cuts that dig to the very vitals of their physical comforts distressing them regarding the proper care of their families often, thus reducing their effective capability, they stay as do their other militant brothers on life's firing line.

In many ways the missionaries are showing the world the right values in Christian living and their converts are models of probity. Their work is an increasing acquisition to the Christianity of mankind, and addition of the best sort.

Not only do they demand and need our every available material support but they crave our personal sympathy and prayers. For that reason among others there must be definite, fundamental teaching in the creative departments of our well organized Church, which comprises the missionary department of our Sunday schools, mission study classes in our Epworth Leagues and such other departmental work afforded by the young people's agencies of the women's missionary societies.

agencies of the women's missionary societies.

Therefore it is nothing more than our bounden duty to support with all our energies the every call of the World Service by which and only which the cares of the different dependent societies are existing. The key man of this situation is the pastor aided mainly by his own loyal church acting through its legally constituted committees. Sporadic and excitable campaigns never produce lasting desirable results in building enterprises meant for permanency.

Therefore, we, the Inter Mountain members in conference assembled in Cascade, Idaho, do hereby pledge ourselves as loyal pastors over expectant and normally responsive people to do our honest utmost for these interests, beginning now.

J. D. GILLILAN, Chairman.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, The Helena Area Messenger of July and August 1925, on pages 4 and 5 gives a purported report of the meeting of the HELENA AREA COUNCIL, held at Glacier Park July 28th and 29th, 1925, which report shows that in report No. 1 of Committee's, the Bishop is authorized to employ an Area Secretary or Area Field Secretary at a salary of $3,500.00 per annum and a house rental of $500.00 per annum, and

Whereas, The same committee report authorizes the Area Secretary to publish the Messenger at least six times a year and mail a copy to each family in the area, and that the Messenger be paid for by the local church at the rate of 20 cents annual subscription, and

Whereas, The same report authorizes an addition of five per cent to the World Service apportionment to cover the cost of the area office, and

Whereas, The same committee report authorizes the discontinuance of the meeting of the Area Council, annually, and only provides for a meeting quadrennially, and all of the powers in the interim, be conferred upon an executive committee consisting of the Bishop and District Superintendents,

Now, Therefore, We the Layman's Conference in session at Cascade, Idaho, this 25th day of September, 1925, do hereby file our objections to the actions of the Helena Area Council, as follows:

FIRST: We do not think the financial condition of the Inter Mountain Charges would warrant paying its pro rata of the salary of an Area Field Secretary, at such a large salary. Or for an appropriation of $41.66 per month for house rent, during the period that our local Churches are suffering for the need of repairs, and improvements, and during the time our local pastors are not properly or comfortably housed.

SECOND: We object to and decline to be charged with the cost of printing and distributing the Messenger to the members of our local charges, for the reason that any family who wishes this publication should pay for it, and if not they would not appreciate it. We are loyal to the Pacific Advocate, and feel that it supplies us with all the Church news, and serves the World Service cause much better than the Messenger does.

THIRD: We object to the addition of five per cent to the World Service apportionment, to pay the expenses and cost of the Area office, for the reason that we are of the opinion that the World Service cause is and can be as well served by the Bishop, District Superintendents and local pastors without this added expense, and we, the laymen who furnish the finances prefer to have our funds expended on the field where it is more a necessity, than for a home organization set up.

FOURTH: We object to and refuse to abide by any act or acts that may be authorized by an executive committee made up of the Bishop and District Superintendents who assume the duties of the regular Area Council for the reason that such executive committee is not authorized by the laws of the Church, and for the further reason that laymen are not represented on the said executive committee, and the law of the Church provides for equal representation as between Ministerial and laymen representatives, and for the further reason, that no acts of the Area Council are binding upon the Annual Conferences until such acts have been confirmed by the Annual Conference, District and Local Church World Service Council shall have approved such act, and we hereby request our Annual Conference, District and all Local Church Councils to disapprove any or all of the foregoing acts of the Area Council.

FIFTH: We, the laymen of the Intermountain Conference must insist that as long as we provide the funds, we must be represented on the various boards, committees and councils that apportion such amounts against our several charges.

We hereby certify that the Layman's Association of the Inter Mountain Conference held at Cascade, Idaho, Friday, Sept. 25, 1925, elected E. C. S. Brainard of Payette and E. L. Ashton of Twin Falls, lay members of the Helena Area World Service Council and H. E. Neal of Collister and C. E. B. Roberts of Gooding, and S. E. Smith of La Grande, lay members of the World Service Committee of the Inter Mountain Annual Conference.
